

WILLIAM GALLIGANI
INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

William Galligani from Nimes, France, was elected to serve a two-year term as a director of Lions Clubs International at the association's 100th International Convention held in Chicago, Illinois, USA, June 30 through July 4, 2017.

Director Galligani is a retired bank executive and entrepreneur.

A member of the Nimes Alphonse Daudet Lions Club, and a Lion since 1968, he has held many offices within the association, including club president, zone chairperson, region chairperson, district governor and European Forum committee member.

In recognition of his service to the association, Director Galligani has received numerous awards, including an International President's Award. He is also a Progressive Melvin Jones Fellow.

In addition to his Lions activities, Director Galligani has been active in numerous professional and community organizations, including as president of Nimes Passion, director of the Hubert Pascal Foundation, and vice president of the Automobile Club of Gard Lozere Ardeche.

Director Galligani and his wife, Minh, have two daughters.