FEEDING BOTH BELLIES AND BRAINS

For those fortunate to have ready access to abundant food and a well-equipped kitchen to prepare life-sustaining nourishment, it may be hard to fathom that not everyone does.

Fortunately for children at Khomasdal Primary School in Namibia, Lions more than 12,000 km away recognized a need and stepped in to deliver relief.

With a grant of more than US$25,000 from Lions Clubs International Foundation (LCIF) matching their own contributions, Lions in Germany facilitated construction and equipping of a hygienic, enclosed kitchen and storeroom in the school, primarily attended by children from economically challenged families. Also built was an open-air dining area where students visit with friends while recharging their brains through a nutritious lunch.

"The school's kitchen was inadequate and unhygienic," said one German Lion. "Lions' kindness knows no borders. When we learned the children in Namibia were not receiving adequate food due to extreme poverty, we sought funding from our foundation. Service takes many forms. Lions from my country were happy to help from afar and create a healthier environment for the Namibian children."

A Continent in Crisis

Just as it is for some in Africa, food scarcity, and other factors contributing to malnutrition, are evident at schools, dinner tables, and feeding centres throughout Europe.

THAT'S EUROPE. GLOBALLY, HUNGER LOOKS LIKE THIS:

1 in 9
people is chronically hungry⁶
Chances of food insecurity ~10% higher for women⁷

At least 50% of children
under age 5 have hidden hunger
lack of essential nutrients⁸

2 billion
people lack regular access to nutritious and sufficient food⁹
25% of children are stunted due to lack of nutritious food¹⁰

With financial support from Lions and clubs worldwide, Campaign 100 is empowering Lions to increase service impact in vision, youth, disaster relief, and humanitarian efforts; fight the global epidemic of diabetes; and make important progress in expanded cause areas of childhood cancer, hunger, and the environment.
